Help us investigate neck pain!

We are looking for volunteers with and without neck pain between the ages of 21 and 65 for a research study.

Participants with neck pain will receive osteopathic manipulative treatment, complete questionnaires, and perform laboratory testing over an 8 week period.

Those without pain will be asked to participate in 2 laboratory testing sessions.

If you are interested, please contact:

MSU Center for Orthopedic Research
msucor@msu.edu
517-975-3301
http://orthopedicresearch.msu.edu

Osteopathic manipulative treatment is hands-on care provided by an osteopathic physician (D.O.) and is aimed at relieving pain and improving physical function.

PI: Jacek Cholewicki, PhD. Funded by NIH.